

Dr. Georges Abi Raad (Lebanon)

- Dr George Abi Raad earned his doctor of medicine from the university of Bordeaux-France in 1978.
- He completed his orthopedic residency at La Rochelle, France. After additional focused training in foot surgery.
- he earned a university Diploma in foot and Ankle surgery in 2002 from the Faculty of Medicine, Amiens-France.
- He currently works at the University Medical Centre-Rizk Hospital, Beirut.
- Dr Abi Raad is internationally renowned for his pioneering work in foot surgery, including mini invasive techniques.
- He has authored many abstracts and original articles published in peer-review journals as well as published book chapters.
- He is an invited speaker in national and international foot surgery meetings.
- Dr Abi Raad was honored by the French government in 2003 and 2009 for his innovative work in foot surgery.
- Dr Abi Raad is the founder of the Lebanese Society for Ankle and foot Surgery.
- He served as active member of the board of the French Society for Foot Surgery and was responsible of the international relationships with different foot societies outside Europe