

Mr. Thomas Smith (UK)

- Head of the scientific committee of the MIFAC course.
- Mr Tom Smith was trained initially at Cambridge University and Imperial College Medical School London.
- His postgraduate training was in London and Oxford with research experience into articular cartilage while in Sweden.
- As a Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon in Sheffield, UK he had a special interest in football injury and is still involved with Sheffield Wednesday Football Club.
- He has recently retired as editor of "Foot & Ankle Surgery" and was a founding editor of "The Foot" which continues to be a multidisciplinary journal in the field of science and medicine of the foot